DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This two and one half story frame house is covered with German siding. There are three bays on the front under a gabled roof and at each end is a chimney. There is a center gable with a pointed arched window in the attic. The second story windows were originally all round arched windows. The house is basically symmetrical with the exception of the one story porch which extends across the front and around the east side also. This porch is supported by turned posts. Parts of the ballustrade with turned spindles are missing.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Practically symmetrical, with a center gable and porch with turned posts, this house is similar to several others on Locust Street, and was built around the turn of the 20th century. These homes, much simpler than the elaborate Queen Anne style houses of this era, reflect the type of homes that were lived in by the middle class.
